"2012, The Year of Ministry"

Dear Church Family,

My prayer for you this year is that your family will experience all of the abundant blessings of the Lord. I have spent time in prayer and fasting for the spiritual direction of the church that the Lord would have us to chart for the year 2012. There was a churning in my spirit for the past few months as I spent time with the Lord. His Spirit led me to our theme for the new year, "2012, The Year of Ministry."

I believe in my heart, more than ever before, that the Lord is instructing us, the body of believers at KCCOG, to line up behind Him and move forward in a more spiritual manner to fulfill the church's Biblical mandate. I know that this may appear to be something new that I am doing, but let me assure you that is not the case. All, that we will do this year is something that the church should be doing in its call to be a church and follow the Great Commission of Jesus Christ outlined in Matthew 28:18-20. I pray that you will begin to understand and observe as the Apostle Paul encouraged the church, "Follow me as I follow Christ." I have resolved in my heart to keep my eyes fixed on Jesus this year so that I may follow Him wherever He leads us as spoken of in Revelation 14:1-4.

This newsletter is the Genesis of "2012, The Year of Ministry." In it you will find the speakers for the month of January for our weekly Sunday Worship Services. Our worship services each Sunday will be live-streamed online and the prophetic process of worship will be more enhanced. The newsletter also has information that gives an overview of all the ministry programs and activities for ministry teams in the church for the entire month of January.

Finally, the spiritual edification of teaching from the Seven Spiritual Principles workbook and other learning tools, exercises, etc. will equip us as believers to do the work of ministry more effectively. I encourage you to get ready to experience the manifold blessings of the Lord for you and your family in 2012, The Year of Ministry.

Blessings,

Pastor Curry
